

True or false (and give a proof of your answer): There exists  $T \in \mathcal{L}(\mathcal{R}^3)$  s.t.  $T$  is not self-adjoint but there is a basis of  $\mathcal{R}^3$  consisting of eigenvectors of  $T$ .