

Source: [\[KBhHIST201MasonAndKennedy\]](#)

1 | Liberalism and Nationalism

1.1 | Liberalism

=> “democracy?”

There are two main types of liberalistic ideas: political liberalism and economic liberalism — both trying to achieve personal freedom

See [\[KBhHIST201Liberalism\]](#)

1.2 | Nationalism

Mason’s definition of the nation => “people who share a common language, culture, and identity.”

There are two types of nationalism: popular nationalism and civic nationalism. They both are ways that a nation collect together under an identity.

See [\[KBhHIST201Nationalism\]](#)