

Source: KBhHIST201HolyRomanEmpire1500s KBhHIST201Kissinger

1 | Raison d'état

Each state depended on the other. The well being of the state justified whatever means were employed to further it. The national interest supplanted the medieval notion of a universal morality. — KBhHIST201Kissinger

A method of “sensible government” that promises to set aside personal ideological differences for the betterment of the country as a whole.

1.1 | Exhibit A: France!

KBhHIST201FrenchRaisonDeEtat