- 2 | germany and russia are both looking each other with paranoia
- 3 | because germany industrialized fast and russia has lots of people
- 4 | from 1880 to 1913, germany's manufacturing output share (of the world) doubles (table 18)
- 5 | table 19: everybody is amassing military, and nobody can be sure that the others aren't going to attack (security dilemma)
- 6 | table 20: great britain builds up it's navy (and is scared of germany because they've gone from 88k to 1.3M tons)
 - 6.1 | dreadnaughts: germany comes up with a ship that makes all others obsolete, and an expensive arms race insues
 - 6.2 | we can't be sure what people's motives were, can only look at old correspondences and journals
- 7 | alliances map
 - 7.1 | french and british are teamed (which is strange because they'd been fighting)
 - 7.1.1 | although maybe it makes sense geographically, and they are both afraid of germany
 - 7.2 | austria-hungary is very culturally diverse, which makes alliances awkward
 - 7.2.1 | italy might want italians back from austria
 - 7.2.2 | generally austrian civilians may not want to fight for austria
- 8 | alliances map again (but changes)
 - 8.1 | italy is on the allied side now
 - 8.2 | the ottoman empire (bulgaria too) have joined germany
 - 8.2.1 | ottomans have beef with both the austrians and russians
- 9 | colonial shenanigans in north africa
 - 9.1 | british and french almost fought over north africa
Taproot · 2020-2021
 - 9.2 | they marched their armies around and stared at eachother for a bit and almost had a big african war

- (a) ottoman empire, almost dissolved, 'still held a band of territory from Constantinople westward to the Adriatic'
- (b) south lay an independent greece, north had bulgaria and romania
- (c) small and landlocked serbia and bosnia-herzegovina to the west
 - i. belonged legally to turkey but occupied and administered by austria since 1878
- (d) within the austro-hungarian empire next to bosnia on the north and west was croatia and slovenia

2. cultural division

- (a) altho Serbs, Bosnians, Croats, and Slovenes all basically spoke Serbo-Croatian, Serbs and Bosnians wrote eastern/Cyrillic while the Croats and Slovenes wrote with the western/roman alphabet
- (b) caused by diff in religion: Slovenes and Croats were Roman Catholic, and affiliated with the west. Serbs and 'many Bosnians' were Eastern Orthodox and closer to Russia
- (c) also many Muslim Slaves in Bosnia converted 'during the Ottoman domination'

3. upset slavs

- (a) "During the Slavic Revival, which emphasized language, many of these peoples felt like one people, the Yugoslavs (South Slavs)"
- (b) Dual Monarchy formed in 1867 -> Slavs of the Habsburg empire subordinate to German Austrians and Hungarian Magyars
- (c) radical Slav nationalists fed up of dual monarchy by 1900, wanted independent Yugoslavia
- (d) 'Concretely, this meant that an element of the Austro-Hungarian population (the Croatian and Slovenian nationalists) wanted to get out and join with Serbia across the border).

11 | cult of the offensive (prisoners dilemma style)

11.1 | a popular theory for why WWI started

11.2 | timeline

11.2.1 | heir assassinated

11.2.2 | austria-hungary gets upset and issues ultimatums

11.2.3 | serbia doesn't agree and austria declares war

11.2.4 | russia backs serbia and declares war on austria hungary

11.2.5 | germany declares war on russia, and france (preemptively)

11.2.6 | everyone reciprocates, japan comes in from nowhere

11.3 | cult of the offensive

11.3.1 | leaders believed that new technologies favored the offensive

11.3.2 | formalizing the problem

1. states can preempt or defend

2. outcomes

- (a) best: i preempt, you defend (surprised)
- (b) both defend (peace)
- (c) both preempt (war)
- (d) i defend, you preempt (bad news bears for me)
- (e) assumption is that preemption is better than defense

3. preempting vs defending is the prisoners dilemma

11.3.3 | from any one perspective, preempting is always better than defending regardless of the other person

11.3.4 | how could this have been avoided

- 1. third party to hold everyone accountable/defensive
- 2. mutually assured destruction
- 3. existing alliances
- 4. a balancer like the US could have mediated
