

1 | fall of Qing

- 1.1 | Manchu 12-yo boy emperor Puyi abducted in 1912
- 1.2 | power vacuum competed for by 'regional warlords, loose alliance of students, politicians, secret societies, Japanese, communist movement'
- 1.3 | internal divisions and foreign influences paved the way for the ultimate victory of Mao Zedong claim

2 | warlord cliques

- 2.1 | dominated Chinese politics for next 3 decades
- 2.2 | most powerful clique was in North China headed by Yuan Shikai
- 2.3 | Shanghai and Canton made second power center, favored politicians like Sun Yat-sen

3 | university students, teachers, and intellectuals